SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The 3 1/2" computer disk entitled Naught~2.wps is classified as:
Objectionable.

The computer disk contains one text file of the same title. This file is an untitled story approximately 800 words in length, narrated in the first person by a school girl. The story explicitly describes the girl's sexual activity alone at home, in a maths class, and at home with her male maths teacher. The story is intended to titillate or sexually stimulate the reader, describing the activities in some detail and using sexual vernacular. Activities described include masturbation, digital vaginal and anal penetration, vaginal penetration with a thick felt-pen, male ejaculation, urination, and the use of urine. All activities present as pleasurable and consensual.

The computer disk is deemed objectionable under s3(2) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 (the FVPC Act), as it tends to promote and support the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes, and promotes and supports the use of urine in association with sexual conduct. The school girl's age is not expressly stated, however a reader interpretation of her as anywhere between 14 and 17 years of age is strongly supported by her social context and verbal manner. The girl's sexual activities, whether they involve a second person or not, are presented as a legitimate source of reader sexual stimulation. She is further presented to readers as a legitimate sexual partner for her adult male teacher. The girl and teacher enjoy the use of urine in association with sexual conduct. Urination and the drinking of urine are juxtaposed with cunnilingus, masturbation, and the male ejaculating.

Consideration has also been given to the relevant provisions of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 (the NZBR Act). The restriction on the availability of this publication, which is a limit on freedom of expression, is prescribed by law, as s3(2) of the FVPC Act is a deeming provision inconsistent with and intended to limit s14 of the NZBR Act.
